Work Experience:

Please begin with your current position and work backward. You must document at least two years, spending at least 50 percent of your time working specifically with the LIHTC Program. Detailed job descriptions are essential to getting full credit for your work experience. Is there partial credit? Attach a separate sheet with a detailed job description for your current position if you need more space and to document prior experience if you have been in your current position for less than two years. Your current supervisor must sign this page.

Continuing Education Requirements:

All Housing Credit Certified Professionals must demonstrate their continued attention to developments in the profession by meeting continuing education requirements beginning with the year following the year they receive their credential. The continuing education requirement may be satisfied by documenting the following;

Attendance at education sessions for a minimum of four (4) hours annually

Sessions should address current developments in the housing credit program, including but not limited to;

- New Regulations from the US Department of Treasury affecting the LIHTC program,
- Recent statutory changes to IRS Section 42, or
- New state laws, regulations, guidelines or changes to the state Qualified Allocation Plan (QAP).

Classes or sessions may be offered by a private training or seminar company, trade association or state housing agency.

Annual Renewal Requirements

You will receive an annual notice to renew.

To maintain active status, you must:

- Complete the continuing education requirements.
- Pay the annual renewal fee of $175.00 members/$235 non-members.

Code of Ethics
Housing Credit Certified Professional Program

This Code of Ethics promotes the highest standards of professional conduct for professionals credentialed under the Housing Credit Certified Professional program. Adherence to this Code of Ethics is required for initial certification and thereafter for maintaining one's certification.

As a Housing Credit Certified Professional, I pledge to:

1. Maintain loyalty to the ownership of the properties I represent and pursue their goals and objectives, accepting no management assignments that would pose a conflict of interest on my part with established regulations and statutes.
2. Obtain and maintain all licenses and training required by state or local governments having jurisdiction over my activities, including state monitoring and allocating agencies. Work with state monitoring and allocating agencies and the Internal Revenue Service in response to inquiries.
3. Hold inviolate the confidential and fiduciary relationship with my employer and the confidential information entrusted to me by employees and residents.
4. Serve all employees and residents impartially and neither provide nor accept any special compensation, commissions, or payments without the prior knowledge and consent to such payments by my employer and the property owner.
5. Allow no exploitation of my position, industry, or profession.
6. Uphold all laws and regulations providing for fair access to housing opportunities, housing rental, and accommodations. This includes but is not limited to all federal, state, and local fair housing laws, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1992, and related regulations.
7. Exercise sound business principles in managing properties.
8. Use only legal and ethical means to influence legislation or regulation.
9. Issue no false or misleading statements to the public. Refrain from disseminating any malicious information concerning any property or person.
10. Utilize every opportunity to improve public understanding of the low-income housing tax credit and Housing Credit Certification.

I hereby affirm that the information supplied in this Professional Profile & Application is correct to the best of my knowledge and pledge myself to abide by the Code of Ethics for Housing Credit Certified Professionals, as it may be amended from time to time.
