

Student Chapter Membership

Your Future's Framework. Your Professional Network.

NAHB's Student Chapter program offers students first-hand exposure to the real world of the building industry through membership, educational programming and networking opportunities

What is a NAHB Student Chapter?

- A student-organized club at a college or university of student interested in the residential construction industry

Why Start or Join a Student Chapter?

- Advance leadership skills
- Learn about the construction industry through the lens of real builders
- Gain professional development
- Find or be a mentor to next generation
- Connect with like-minded peers around the country

How to Start a Student Chapter

- Recruit students who are interested in the building trades (studying Construction Management not required)
- Ask an instructor to serve as an Advisor for your club
- Make a connection with your local Home Builders Association (HBA)

Next Steps

- Find your local HBA
- Reach out to Student Chapters for an introduction

NAHB Dues for Post-Secondary Programs

- $400/school allows unlimited student members to join your chapter
- Or pay $25/student member

Student Member Highlights

- Career Networking – Build a relationship with industry professionals through your local Home Builders Association (HBA). Access a national network through members-only community, NAHB Connect.
- Knowledge and Expertise – Stay up-to-date with the latest industry news, and receive a digital copy of Pro Builder magazine and monthly student chapter e-newsletters with trending information. Explore NAHB special interest groups like Young Professionals (YPs) and Professional Women in Building (PWB).
- Student Competition – By completing real-life construction projects, students compete as they display their problem-solving abilities while learning more about land development and custom homebuilding from concept to closing.
